

THE FILHARMONIC EPK

BIOGRAPHIES

With Los Angeles as home base, we now present you with The Filharmonic, a band unique in their musical talent and cultural diversity. The Filharmonic, an a cappella group of Filipino-American youngsters who were featured in NBC'S hit musical competition, The Sing-Off, has much to sing about. The 5-piece vocal group made the semi-finals, joined The Sing-Off national tour, and were featured in the Universal Pictures hit movie, Pitch Perfect 2, then became a viral sensation after their Late Late Show appearances. In 2016, The Filharmonic brought their unique blend of hip hop, pop and 90'S nostalgia to more than 150 stages nationwide and was named the #1 college booked entertainment group of the year. They consist of vocalists Vj Rosales, Joe Caigoy, Trace Gaynor, Vocal Bass Jules Cruz, And Beat Boxer Niko Del Rey.

What started as friendly chance encounters at singing competitions in college eventually solidified into a harmonious group as the boys discovered their shared genuine chemistry, unparalleled love of music, and undeniable musical talents. Through social network and a strong kinship to their Filipino culture they have found their niche in the musical community. Though their passion for great music is on par, their combined talents come from a wide variety of backgrounds in the performing arts industry, including pop, a cappella, jazz, opera, theater, classical, etc. Together they honor their Filipino heritage through incredibly nuanced musical performances that are both moving and fun to experience.

Currently, the boys can be found working hard on their music, videos, and doing what they love most: simply performing. Ultimately the group aspires to work with the greatest in the music industry for the greatest audience in the world: you. To this end, they invite you to join them on this amazing journey they've embarked on as they work joyfully and tirelessly at their art.

Joe Caigoy is the big cuddly bear of the group! His voice has been given many nicknames during The Filharmonic's journey on "The Sing Off," ranging from "The Voice of God" to "Chocolate Covered Strawberries." Joe brings a lot to the table in terms of vocal variety. Not only was he a part of Mt. Sac's winning ICCA group in 2009 (Alongside Pentatonix's Avi Kaplan), he also has merits in both vocal jazz and opera. However, his diversity doesn't stop there. Joe was born to perform and was even praised by Jewel for his sultry body roll choreography on the show. He is considered to be an expert in the world of a cappella and has a yearly mentoring position at the famed A Cappella Academy which is run by Ben Bram and Avi Kaplan of Pentatonix. Even though VJ is working round the clock on numerous projects you might be able to find him on his downtime watching Netflix or listening to Beyoncé and Fifth Harmony.

NAME: NIKO DEL REY
BIRTHDATE: OCTOBER 1990
FAVORITE FOOD: CARNE ASADA FRIES
PARENTS ORIGINALLY FROM: MANILA & CAVITE

His beats can only be rivaled by his long, luscious hair. You may have heard others call him "The Bad Boy" of the group but that is only because he marches to the beat of his own drum. In actuality Niko isn't a law breaker but an aspiring Law Enforcement Officer with his degree in Political Science that he earned from the University of California, Riverside. You can see his hip-hop rooted personality through his unique style of beatboxing and his street inspired fashion choices. The group also considers him the best dancer which could be a result from his love of 90's Hip-Hop. When he isn't working on his rhythms, you can find him working it out at the gym.

Prior to singing with The Filharmonic, he was holding the esteemed title of Musical Director for a cappella group, the USC Troy Tones. Although he illustrates a boyish demeanor onstage, Trace is very business minded and takes a lot of pride in The Filharmonic's social presence. So if you ever get a heartfelt reply or a cute emoji, chances are you can thank Trace for that.

THE Filharmonic

BY: SARAH CALLAHAN

On January 14th at 2 pm I had a phone interview with Barry Fortgang and Niko Del Rey of the A-cappella group The Filharmonic.

The group began as just a few college students who saw an opportunity to start a singing choir in middle school so I guess they really started.

interested in music?

Niko: I actually got started by playing guitar for church when I was 12.

Barry: My parents were really interested in music and I was in a singing choir in middle school so I guess they really started.

it like being in Pitch

was a really amazing

because we are super of acapella music and

ect. Personally it was my

It was a lot of fun and big fans.

but touring with such big

such as the Black Eyed

Linkin Park?

Niko: Surreal. I grew up listening to Linkin Park and the Black Eyed Peas have some great party songs. So performing with them was incredible and just so much fun.

Are there any artists you guys really hope to work with in the future?

Barry: I believe I speak for all of us when I say Beyonce. I also think it would be cool to work with Justin Timberlake and Nsync.

Niko, you have a political science degree, do you have any plans to do something with that in the future? Or what you might have done if you weren't in the Filharmonic?

Niko: If I hadn't been in the Filharmonic I would've worked in law enforcement because I really just want to help people. Now that I'm in the Filharmonic I really just want to donate money to charities.

Barry, you studied at the American Musical and Dramatic Academy, any future plans to maybe be in a show on Broadway?

Barry: Yeah I grew up with musical theater and I like it a lot just as much pop music. So I guess if the opportunity arose I'd consider it.

Finally what advice do you have for aspiring musicians in college?

Niko: Love what you do, just ride along with what you feel and just continue to chase your passion. ●
